

Random intercept only, as in the published model — slope contrasts assume independent trials